1.0 Introduction

Delhi Development Authority being the land-owning Agency in Delhi has various categories of recreational land under its jurisdiction. DDA has been designing and maintaining this large quantum of Master Plan Green for the benefit of the public. The recreational Green includes open environments like Jahanpanah Forest to Millennium Park, Aastha Kunj, District Level parks and also small Neighbor-hood Greens. Delhi is known for its large percentage of green areas and people residing in the city are benefitted with respect to environment and social benefits by using these green areas. DDA, in pursuit of further enhancing the usability of various kinds of greens has decided to propose booking some of the parks for organizing functions which are primarily art-and-culture-oriented events. The purpose is to enable public to use the DDA Parks in an organized manner and thus, enliven the parks further.

2.0 Categories of Available DDA Parks and Facilities

DDA is making certain parks available for booking for entertainment, performances, and other cultural and art-oriented events as per terms and conditions of the Policy. Identified facilities in the Parks available under this Policy have been classified into following categories.

Category A: Open park area, clearly delineated for the purpose.

Category B: Specific facilities like Amphitheaters, Boat club within the Parks.

3.0 Activities Permitted in DDA Parks During Booked Events

Besides fulfilling the terms and conditions listed in the Policy document, following activities/events are permitted in the park facilities offered to the public for the purpose of recreation and organizing events:

- 3.1 The proposed event can be organized to promote cultural activities like music performance, play and theatre, talks, poetry reading, documentary screening, various language festivals, art competitions and shows, health-oriented events, Exhibitions, etc.
- 3.2 The proposed event can be a privately organized get-together or picnic, wherein entry would be through invitation from the organizers. The application may be submitted as per Booking Procedure mentioned in para 9.
- 3.3 In each of the above cases, the list of activities proposed by the organizers will be submitted along with the application for the approval of the Competent Authority.

4.0 Activities Not Permitted in DDA Parks During Booked Events

- 4.1 Political functions and marriage ceremonies will not be allowed.
- 4.2 No cooking shall be allowed inside the park. Only ready-to-eat food shall be permitted for consumption on the site. The site will be restored to its initial state with proper disposal of any waste generated during the event at the cost of the organizers.

5.0 Duration of Booking

- 5.1 The booking agency shall be granted permission to use the Park facility for a half day slot of 6 hours or a full day slot of 12hours from the time of handing over the authorization subject to the terms and conditions of the policy.
- 5.2 The booking agency is expected to ready the venue for the event and clear the site after the event within the allotted duration.
- 5.3 Event activities will be allowed from 6:00am to 8:00 pm during winter months and 5:00am to 9:00 pm during summer months for Categories A and B. (6-8, 5-9). For Category B facilities, the evening timings may be extended up to 11:00pm with prior permission of the Park Authority.
- 5.4 In Category A and B, a single location would not be booked for more than three days in a week.

6.0 Event Plan

Request for booking will only be entertained if it is accompanied by an Event plan specifying the following through on-line application.
