

An unbeatable partnership

Delhi has been the capital of India for the last 100 years. And as a dependable partner, Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has been working towards the development of Delhi for more than five decades

For the last fifty four years, with its people-friendly offerings, prudent planning, dedicated teamwork and commitment, DDA has been partnering in realising Delhi's progressive dreams. By providing homes to more than a million Delhiites, developing commercial, social, educational and healthcare infrastructure facilities, preserving heritage sites, creating biodiversity parks and making the city greener, it has been inspiring the quality of life in Delhi since inception.

DDA congratulates Delhi for completing 100 years as the capital of India
