Finance & Expenditure Circular No. 10/2012

This is in supersession of the F & E Circular No.17/2007 dated 18.12.2007 vide which it was made mandatory that recommendation from Govt. specialist may be obtained with regard to the period of post operative OPD treatment to be continued after six months for :

- (a) Post Operative treatment of major Cardiology/Cardiac surgery.
- (b) Oncology cases.
- (c) Post operative treatment of organ transplant.
- (d) Post operative treatment of Joint replacement cases.
- (e) Post operative treatment of Major Neurosurgical / Neurology cases.

as per provisions of Rule 8(22) of CS(MA) Rules.

Looking into the difficulties being faced by the employees/pensioners in obtaining such recommendation from Govt. Hospitals, Vice-Chairman, DDA has been please to approve the proposal that Hospitals on the Panel of DDA may be considered akin to Govt. Hospital. Therefore, treatment/ recommendations from the Hospitals on the Panel of the DDA will also be sufficient for reimbursement of OPD medicines for continuation of the treatment beyond six months.
